

Please do not accept the Consumer Bank Association's proposal to weaken the current restrictions on the Indiana do not call list. The established business relationship exemption should require specific signed consents.

David Heck